7) Supplemental Recruitment Initiatives.

(a) Initiative: Staff Training Program

Beginning in December of 2003, WSKY-TV implemented a voluntary training program for members of the WSKY-TV staff. The training is conducted by Wade Powell & Associates, an accredited Dale Carnegie training facility. The station offers the training to its staff at no cost, taking on all of the financial responsibility itself. WSKY creates opportunities, for this described training, on a quarterly basis. The purpose of the training is to give the staff members an opportunity to develop business and personal skills that will enhance their personal and professional lives. The station's expectation is that the development of these skills will prepare the staff for higher level positions and encourage the staff to develop and grow within the company.

(b) Initiative: Internship Program

Beginning in August of 2004, WSKY-TV implemented an internship program with Elizabeth City State University, The College of the Albemarle and Old Dominion University. The program involves partnerships with the communications departments at the schools. Students and recent graduates are given opportunities to train within the WSKY-TV operations and productions departments and gain valuable job skills necessary to pursue careers within the broadcast community.
